

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

THURSDAY EVE., OCTOBER 11, 1883.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Publishers and Proprietors,
To WHOM ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS.

TO-DAY'S ADVERTISEMENTS.
Chenoweth & Co.,—Diamond Dyes.
A. R. Burgess—Dry goods, etc.
Kentucky Central Railroad—Excursion.

THE telegrams received to-day, Speak each in different voice;
But as you pay your money down, Why, you can take your choice.

PLEURO-PNEUMONIA is reported to have broken out among cattle in Lehigh county, Pa.

FRED HARTMAN, while hunting chestnuts near Flemingsburg, fell from a tree and received fatal injuries.

REV. S. H. CHESTER will preach at the Presbyterian Church, in Washington, on Sunday at 3 o'clock p. m.

MESSRS. CHILDS, ROBINSON & Co.'s store has been very handsomely improved and is now one of the most attractive in the city.

THE street cars leave the stables every morning at half past five o'clock. The last round trip is made from the stables at nine o'clock.

THERE will be preaching by Rev. A. N.
Gilbert and the administration of the ordinance of immersion at the Christian Church to-night.

READ all the new advertisements in the BULLETIN and you will obtain information that will be valuable to you in making your fall purchases.

MR. A. R. BURGESS in an advertisement elsewhere offers some sensational prices on certain line of staple goods. You will do well to make a note of it.

REV. S. H. CHESTER will preach at the Presbyterian Church, on Third street, Sunday morning and evening. Evening service begins promptly at 7 o'clock.

Dyes! Dyes!

We have just received ten gross of the celebrated Diamond Dyes, which includes the full line and all colors on the card. old12t CHENOWETH & Co.

W. A. STOCKDALE is getting along well and is considered on a fair way to recovery. It has been ascertained that he was wounded six times instead of five as at first thought. The balls have not yet been removed from his body.

CARL, the little son of Mr. A. T. Mc-Donald, of Flemingsburg, fell from a dray and had his arm crushed by the wheels passing over it. It was broken in a frightful manner and it is thought amputation will be necessary.

A peculiar virtue in Ayer's Sarsaparilla is that while it cleanses and purges the blood from all corruptions and impurities, and thereby roots out all diseases, it builds up and invigorates the whole system, and makes one young again.

A man is feared at Brooksville and in consequence the jail has been guarded for several nights past. The inmates are Erastus Cummings, Peter Snodgrass and Young Smith, the men who were present when the Myers tragedy occurred, on the 29th ult.

THE detailed reports of the election in Ohio printed on the first page indicate that the result is in doubt, but a special to the BULLETIN printed elsewhere, and of later date states that Hoadley is elected by about 13,000 majority and that the Legislature is Democratic by a joint ballot by a majority of twenty.

Many forget that the hair and scalp need cleansing as well as the hands and feet. Extensive use of Ayer's Hair Vigor has proven that it is the best cleansing agent for the hair—that it prevents as well as removes dandruff, cools and soothes the scalp, and stimulates the hair to renewed growth and beauty.

REV. J. W. FRICH, of Winchester, Presiding Elder of the Maysville District, and Elder J. B. Briney, of Covington, propose holding a debate at Berry's Station, Harrison county, beginning November 6th and lasting eight days. They will discuss the mode, subject, and design of Baptism, and the operation of the Holy Spirit in the new birth. They will give two days to each of the four propositions.

THE sheriff of Carter county with a posse of ten men conveyed Ellis Craft to Grayson yesterday, preparatory to his execution on Friday. The sheriff's party was armed with double-barreled shotguns loaded with buck shot. The Governor has refused to grant the respite asked, and in doing so said that he had carefully examined every detail of the pleadings submitted to him, and could see no good reason why the penalty of the law should not be carried out.

OHIO ELECTION.

Hoadley's Majority Placed at Thirteen Thousand,

And the Legislature Democratic on Joint Ballot.

Special to DAILY BULLETIN.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 11, 9 a. m.—Hoadley is elected by 13,000 majority. The Legislature is Democratic by twenty on joint ballot, not including the delegation from Hamilton county, which is Democratic also. The majority is about 2,500 subject to slight changes. A heavy vote was polled all over the State.

Liberal.

The Kentucky Central Railroad, desiring always to deal in a spirit of liberality with its patrons, and to secure for them all benefits and advantages, has arranged for another one of those delightful excursions to the Louisville Exposition, at the merely nominal rate of $3 for the round trip, on Monday, October 15th, from Maysville—tickets to be good returning on any regular train for five days from the above date. Tickets on sale at ticket office at three o'clock p. m., Saturday, October 13th.

Excursion train will leave Maysville at six o'clock a. m. Don't forget the date and hour, or pass the opportunity of lending your presence to this grand enterprise, of which every Kentuckian should be proud, and which you should aid by your presence. The expense is virtually nothing.

BURN.

At Covington, Ky., Oct. 9, 1883, to the wife of Mr. M. E. Brintnall, a fine son, LEROY PIERCE.

DIED.

At the residence of his daughter, Mrs. M.
A. Wood, near Washington, October 7th, 1883, Mr. Robert Humphreys, in the eighty-ninth year of his age.

During the earlier days of the deceased, he was one of the most prominent and active citizens of Mason county. His election, years ago, to the responsible office of Sheriff, was the expression of the public confidence in his business integrity, and his choice subsequently to represent the county in the lower house of the Legislature, attested the place he held in the popular esteem. But most of his active years were spent in the pursuit of agriculture to which he was devoted, and by dint of industry and fine business judgment he amassed a handsome estate. The place most congenial to his tastes was the peaceful precincts of the home, and there those gentle traits which made him the kind father and genial friend, found their truest development. Though ever evinced a lively interest in all public questions and having mature convictions in reference to them, yet the circle of his friends was the theatre where his excellencies of mind and heart were most conspicuous.
Probably no man has ever lived in the county who was freer from reproach, and of whom there was a more universal appreciation. His gentleness of temper, his kindly sympathies, his steadfast integrity, his charitable impulses—these formed a combination of virtues rarely embodied in one man. He came as near as any man fulfilling the requirement of the Maker—to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with God. And, in place the highest adornment to his character, he was a meek and humble follower of Jesus, and though professing His name comparatively late in life, he scrupulously devoted the remainder of years to Him, and at last peacefully died in the triumphs of His gospel. He leaves three sons and three daughters, with their children, to mourn his death. But they inherit an inheritance blessing in the memory of such a father, and have reason to mingle thanksgiving with their tears that he was permitted to linger so long and gladden their homes with his presence. And now that a better home has received him, let their rejoice.
